

Avon close the gap

AT the latest round of the Summer Race League in Gloucester, Avon Ski Club closed the gap on Exeter to only eight points.

With two rounds to go, Avon have their sights set on not only passing Exeter but Western Counties who are only 15 points ahead.

Avon recorded some great results with Peter Kennell being top point scorer with 26, coming fourth in his age group and winning all three of his head-to-head races. Next was George Case with 24 points and two head-to-head wins.

Oliver Mathew continued to challenge for best Under-9 coming second, and Alex Sayers, Archie Banister and Callum Black all won their three head-to-head races.

With the next round on September 17, and the South West Schools Championship on the September 24, it will be a busy month..

The South West Schools Championship will see entrants from at least four local schools, Kewstoke Primary, Backwell, Churchill Community School and Chew Valley, who will all be supported by Avon Ski Club at the event.

The championship is an event open to anyone at school in the south west, who is able to at least link snow-plough turns. If anyone would like to participate, the cost is £10 for the day (at Gloucester Slope) which includes equipment as well.

SKIING

Peter Kennell.

They can enter via www.southwestsnosportsassociation.co.uk or contact Fraser Black on enquiries@avonskiclub.co.uk